Thank You!

We would like to say a huge thank you for all of your support over the Christmas period. We understand it is a busy time and there have been lots of events that wouldn't have been as successful without the support of our families in school. Our Christmas performances have been a huge success and we are very pleased that so many of you attended. We would like to say a big thank you to all of the stall holders who attended our Christmas Fair. It was a resounding success and we look forward to doing it all again next year. Finally, we would like to say a huge thank you to all of the staff in school who have given up their time to support at our Christmas Fair, Glitz and Glam disco and other events over the past few weeks. Without them, they simply wouldn't be possible.

Swain House Has Got Talent

Children in Key Stage 2 enjoyed performing to the rest of the school in our annual Swain House has got Talent show. There were a variety of performances including singing, gymnastics and dancing.

EARLY YEARS CHRISTMAS PRODUCTION AND KS1 NA- TIVITY

This week, children in Nursery, Reception and Key Stage 1 performed to their families. The children did a fantastic job and have worked so hard over the past few weeks in preparation for the performances. We would also like to say a huge thank you to the staff who helped make these performances a possibility.

We hope that you enjoyed them!

CHRISTMAS PARTIES

This week, festivities have been in full swing as the children enjoyed their Christmas parties. They enjoyed eating lots of party food, playing games and even received a visit from Father Christmas. Take a look at some of the parties below!

CHILDREN'S RAFFLE

We would like to say a huge congratulations to our raffle prize winners!

We had great fun cheering along whilst the raffle prize tickets were being drawn. This raffle would not be able to go ahead without the generosity of our fantastic staff here at Swain House Primary School, who donated all the prizes!

READING PLANET REVIEWS!

As part of our Key Stage 2 reading scheme, we would like to use our weekly newsletter to help promote and share some of your children's favourite stories that they have read. Each week, we will be sharing book reviews that have been written by your children.

Big, Bad and Seriously Dangerous - Mercury

This book tells you about really dangerous things like dinosaurs, old crocodiles and really old sharks from prehistoric times. I liked all the information it gave me, I have learnt a lot and would recommend this book to anyone who is interested in animals!

Ayaan—Year 3

Once by Morris Gleitzman

This book is about a boy named Felix, who is an orphan. He escapes the orphanage because his parents promised him they would return for him but after 3 years and 8 months, they haven't yet returned. He rescues a young girl named Zelda from a burning building. They find themselves in a 'death camp' - a concentration camp. I really enjoyed reading this book. I would recommend this book to pupils in Year 5 or 6 as it is enjoyable but there is some violence and scary parts in it.

Kayla- Mae—Year 6

SHARING YOUR NEWS!

We would like to say a huge well done to Mason in year 6. Who was awarded Top Defender and Most Improved player for his football team, Athletico Falcons!

NATIONAL ONLINE SAFETY

This week, our 'Wake Up Wednesday' guide from National Online Safety is about setting up apps, games and software

What Parents & Carers Need to Know about SETTING UP APPS, GAMES AND SOFTWARE

Millions of new phones, tablets, laptops and games consoles will be nestling under Christmas trees this year. However, even if parents and carers have gone to the trouble of setting up these new devices and enabling the safety features, there are still potential hazards in the apps, games and software that children will want to install and use. Knowing what to look for and discussing those risks with your child may help avoid any nasty surprises this Christmas. Here are our top tips for ensuring that unwrapping this year's presents doesn't unleash any unexpected dangers.

TAKE NOTE OF AGE RATINGS

Back when most games were bought in shops, checking the age rating was easy: it was on the front of the box. Now that most games are downloaded, it's tougher – but not impossible. All reputable download stores show a game's age rating at the point of purchase, and you can check the suitability of a specific title your child wants to play at videostandards.org.uk/RatingBoard/games.

18

'FREE' ISN'T ALWAYS FREE

The games market has changed radically in recent years. Many titles are free to download, but then tempt players to pay for cosmetic items (as in Fortnite) or to unlock additional content. There can be huge peer pressure for children to pay for these items. Agree a budget for in-game purchases before the game is downloaded, and make sure children can't authorise in-game purchases by themselves.

DISABLE IN-APP PURCHASING

It's not wise to leave children with devices that can make in-app purchases without your permission. Ideally, set up computers, consoles and phones so child accounts need an adult's authorisation to buy anything. On shared devices (like iPads, which don't allow user accounts), check the settings to ensure that in-app purchasing requires the account holder's password, fingerprint or face ID.

CHECK THE SPECS

To avoid let-downs, check a game's specs before buying – especially for PC or Mac, where games often need a particular graphics chip or processor to work. Sites like systemrequirementslab.com can scan your computer to see if it will run certain games properly. On consoles, make sure you're buying the right version: some newer Xbox or PlayStation games won't play on older consoles.

MONITOR IN-GAME COMMS

Voice chat with friends is part of the fun of modern gaming – but danger lurks here too. Many titles have open chat systems, meaning that children could speak to strangers or hear adult language and verbal abuse when games get particularly competitive. Using a shared family area (as opposed to alone in bedrooms) for online gaming is a good way to keep an occasional ear on what's being said.

BE WARY OF GIFTS

Titles like Roblox, Minecraft and Fortnite have in-game currencies, which can be earned through progress in the game – but can also be bought with real money. A common scam is for a young player to be offered currency if they click a link, visit a certain site or contact another user directly. Warn your child about such offers; they should show you if they're in any doubt over an in-game gift.

APPS ARE AGE RATED, TOO

Like games, apps in the major stores have age ratings, too – so you can see in advance whether an app's appropriate for your child. Additionally, phones' parental control settings allow you to set age limits, preventing young ones from downloading unsuitable apps themselves. These ratings aren't infallible, however: we've seen TV apps featuring adult shows with an age rating of 3, for example.

16

CONSIDER STORAGE

Most apps and games will tell you in the online store how much space they need on a device. Check this carefully – especially with games, which can run into hundreds of megabytes and beyond. If you don't have enough free storage on a device to run the game or app, you won't get a refund from the store. You can normally check a device's available storage space through the settings menu.

WATCH OUT FOR IMITATORS

Even in the official stores, untrustworthy rogue apps can slip through the net. Common tricks are apps or games that have a slightly different name to the genuine article (Fortnight rather than Fortnite, for instance) or use logos which deliberately look very similar to the official app. To avoid downloading these imitations, read the app's description and check who the publisher is listed as.

16 TOK TAK

LEGAL APPS THAT BREAK THE LAW

There are many apps that are perfectly legal but enable illegal activity – streaming apps which let people watch football matches, say, without paying for Sky or BT Sport. Prosecution for using such apps is rare, but they can lead to risky behaviour like viewing rogue streams on sites teeming with malicious links. Watch for children installing unusual apps with 'TV', 'stream' or 'sport' in the name.

IN-APP REGISTRATION

It's common for apps and games to ask users to register: entering personal details like email address, date of birth and other information you might not want your child to divulge. Ask them to get your permission before giving any personal info to an app – and consider using your details rather than the child's, so they're not targeted by marketing spam or put at risk of having their data stolen.

HELLO OSCAR

STAY UPDATED

Most games and apps are subject to regular updates, which not only offer new content and features but also provide critical security improvements. Children tend to ignore such updates – usually because they don't understand why they're important, or they simply want to get straight on with gaming. Check your child's devices periodically to make sure these updates are being installed.
